CP ALL Public Co Ltd (CPALL TB)

Over the worst

CPALL's profit passed bottom last year with an impressive 52% three-year core EPS CAGR in 2022-24F, driven by a recovery in all three of its businesses; CVS, cash & carry and Lotus's grocery retailing. At 19.9x 2024F PE and with the current share price 32% below its 2019 peak, CPALL is now a top sector pick with a Bt75 TP.

Passed the bottom,; BUY

After being hit by COVID and carrying out Siam Makro's (MAKRO TB, BUY, Bt34.50) and Lotus's ownership restructuring within the group, CPALL's core profit passed bottom last year. Despite cutting our earnings by 12-24% in 2022-24F on our earlier MAKRO earnings downgrade but raising them by 7% in 2025-32F on MAKRO's increased store expansions, our DCF-based TP 12-month with our base year rolled over to 2023F is unchanged at Bt75/share. We reaffirm our BUY rating. CPALL is now a retail giant, owning 7-Eleven CVS in Thailand and 59.92% of Makro cash & carry and Lotus's grocery retailing, with a forecasted 52% three-year core EPS CAGR in 2022-24. The stock trades at 19.9x 2024F PE, below its 30x five-year pre-COVID average and 32% below its Bt87.75 2019 peak.

2021 was the worst year

Before completion of its ownership restructuring in 4Q21, CPALL held a 93.08% stake in MAKRO and it invested in 40% of Lotus's in 4Q20. Now, it has 59.92% stake in MAKRO and Lotus's is MAKRO's wholly owned subsidiary. 2021 core profit of Bt8.7bn was the lowest in 10 years given that its 7-Eleven business was hit by COVID with -14.5% SSSG in 2020 and -6.7% in 2021. As it drew down US$2.6bn to fund its 40% stake in Lotus's, interest costs rose by Bt4.1bn last year, of which Bt1.2bn was one-time expenses related to an early bridging loan repayment and bond issuance costs. Lotus's also experienced its worst year ever with a Bt495m loss last year and shared a Bt119m loss with CPALL.

A strong 52% three-year core EPS CAGR

Starting from this year, we expect CPALL to benefit from a recovery of all three of its businesses; CVS, cash & carry and retail grocery and we expect a combined Bt1tr in sales by 2024F, up from Bt571bn in 2019. We estimate it to surpass its 2019 profit level of Bt22bn at Bt28bn in 2024F, translating to a 52% core EPS CAGR in 2022-24F. This looks set to be driven by a full turnaround of its 7-Eleven business with Bt17.6bn of profit in 2024F vs. its previous peak of Bt16.4bn in 2019 while MAKRO (with Lotus's) should contribute higher profit of Bt10.4bn in 2024F vs. Bt5.8bn in 2019 despite CPALL's stake falling to 59.92% from 93.08%. See our MAKRO report, Boosting to BUY, dated 30 May.

A swift 7-Eleven sales recovery

We have seen a faster-than-expected 7-Eleven sales recovery with 1Q22 average daily sales/store of Bt73,460, only 11% below 2019's level and this momentum has continued in 2QTD, though tourists have yet to fully return to Thailand. This is due to successful O2O sales at 10% of its sales mix and product mix adjustments gearing towards foods and large-sized packages.

Now a top sector pick

Earnings cut in 2022-24F on our earlier MAKRO earnings downgrade

Despite cutting our earnings estimates for CP All Pcl (CPALL) by 12-24% in 2022-24F on our earlier Siam Makro Pcl (MAKRO TB, BUY, Bt34.50) earnings downgrade but raising them by 7% in 2025-32F on MAKRO's increased store expansions for both its wholesale and retail businesses, our DCF-based 12-month TP remains unchanged at Bt75/share as we roll over our valuation base year to 2023F.

We believe its worst year is over; now it's a top sector pick

We believe CPALL has passed its worst year reaching a normalized profit bottom of Bt8.7bn last year, down 45% y-y from Bt15.9bn in 2020. Besides the COVID impact on its core 7-Eleven business performance leading to two years of negative same-store sales of -14.5% in 2020 and another -6.7% in 2021, the 40% investment in Tesco Asia (now Lotus's) in 4Q20 caused it to draw down a US$2.6bn bridging loan to fund the investment and this drove interest costs up by a total of Bt4.1bn to Bt12.6bn in 2021. Lotus's also experienced its worst year ever with a Bt495m loss last year when it suffered a COVID hit to hypermarket sales and malls' rental income as well as incurring interest costs on the acquisition of US$4bn in debt, and it shared a Bt119m loss with CPALL.

We reaffirm our BUY rating on CPALL and it is our top sector pick.

Bigger fish with complete range of retail formats

First, CPALL is now a retail giant, owning 7-Eleven convenience stores (CVS) in Thailand and a 59.92% stake in Makro cash & carry and Lotus's retailing. The company is benefiting from a recovery of all three of its businesses; CVS, cash & carry, retail grocery, which we expect to drive a combined Bt1tr in sales by 2024F, up from Bt571bn in 2019.

Ex 3: A New Earnings Cycle

A strong EPS turnaround with a 52% three-year
CAGR

Second, the profit-bottom year has passed, and we expect a strong earnings turnaround to kick off from this year with an estimated 52% three-year core EPS CAGR in 2022-24F, 66% in 2022F, 57% in 2023F and 34% in 2024F. We forecast profit to surpass the Bt22bn seen in 2019 and reach Bt28bn in 2024F. This should be driven by a full recovery of the 7-Eleven business with Bt17.6bn of profit in 2024F vs. a previous peak of Bt16.4bn in 2019 (see drivers in the next section) and MAKRO (with Lotus's) expected to contribute a higher profit of Bt10.4bn in 2024F (Bt5.7bn from cash & carry and Bt4.7bn from Lotus's) vs. Bt5.8bn in 2019 despite CPALL's stake falling to 59.92% from 93.08%.

We see CPALL as better off with the completion of MAKRO and Lotus's shareholding restructuring within the group. Despite its reduced stake in MAKRO whose wholesale business is now more mature, it enjoys a larger holding in Lotus's of 59.92% from 40%. We expect Lotus's to experience a sharp earnings recovery in 2022-24F and stronger growth longer term from the expansion of all store formats, growing its fresh food and online sales and deleveraging. See our MAKRO report, Boosting to BUY, dated 30 May. Of CPALL's three business segments, we estimate 7-Eleven/cash & carry/Lotus's to contribute 63/20/17% of 2024F net profit, vs. 74/26% from 7-Eleven and cash & carry in 2019.

A swift 7-Eleven sales recovery

Sales/store have been recovering quickly

We have seen a faster-than-expected 7-Eleven sales recovery with 1Q22 average daily sales/store of Bt73,460, only 11% below 2019's level and this momentum has continued in 2QTD, though tourists have yet to fully return to Thailand (we estimate foreign tourists accounted for 10% of 7-Eleven sales in normal years before COVID) due to successful O2O sales at 10% of its sales mix and product mix adjustment towards foods and large-sized packages. However, we expect some negative impact on total product margin as gross margin on foods (more budget meals, higher lower-margin food SKUs) declines to below that of non-foods which we expect to become the new normal given changes in product mix.

With its successful product mix, we expect spending/ticket to continue to increase while Thai people returning to live their lives normally (going back to schools/offices) and more tourists should drive traffic/store to recover (871 persons/store/day in 1Q22 was still 27% below 2019's level). We assume SSSG of 11.5/7/5% in 2022-24F. With continuing branch expansion of 700 new stores/year, operating leverage from growing sales and lower interest expenses, we estimate 7-Eleven's profit to recover from Bt2.7bn in 2021 to Bt17.6bn in 2024F, or grow by an 87% three-year CAGR.

COMPANY RATING

THANACHART'S SWOT ANALYSIS

S — Strength

- Thai CVS market leader and has a natural monopoly with a 64% market share.
- A cash-cow stock operating 7-Eleven stores in Thailand – a very stable and secure business.
- Successful franchise.

O — Opportunity

- The Thai CVS market hasn't matured yet while the competitive landscape isn't that fierce.
- Opportunities to open more stores upcountry and also in Bangkok along with mass-transit expansion.
- CLMV expansion.
- New sources of service income.

W — Weakness

- Too swift expansion may lead to staff shortages.
- Loss in early years from MAKRO's overseas expansion to Cambodia, India, China and Myanmar.
- Rising debt from investment in Lotus via MAKRO.

T — Threat

- Risk of natural disasters.
- Risk of theft.

CONSENSUS COMPARISON

|                       | Consensus | Thanachart | Diff    |

| Target price (Bt)     | 76.05     | 75.00      | -1%     |
| Net profit 22F (Bt m) | 16,953    | 13,751     | -19%    |

| Consensus REC         | BUY: 23   | HOLD: 4    | SELL: 0 |

HOW ARE WE DIFFERENT FROM THE STREET?

- Our 2022-23F profits are 19% and 5% below the Bloomberg consensus estimates, likely due to us having lower profit forecasts for MAKRO.
- Our DCF-based TP is 1% lower than the Street number, likely as we roll over our base year to 2023F.

RISKS TO OUR INVESTMENT CASE

- A weaker-than-expected economy would have a direct negative impact on the performance of the 7-Eleven/wholesale/retail businesses as it is highly leveraged to domestic consumption, and this presents the key downside risk to our call.
- If other competitors, i.e., Family Mart, Tops and mini BIGC, expand faster than we currently anticipate and are more successful than we expect now, this would represent a secondary downside risk to our call.
- If its subsidiary MAKRO fails in its ventures abroad and generates larger losses than we currently expect.

Recommendation Structure:

Recommendations are based on absolute upside or downside, which is the difference between the target price and the current market price. If the upside is 10% or more, the recommendation is BUY. If the downside is 10% or more, the recommendation is SELL. For stocks where the upside or downside is less than 10%, the recommendation is HOLD. Unless otherwise specified, these recommendations are set with a 12-month horizon. Thus, it is possible that future price volatility may cause a temporary mismatch between upside/downside for a stock based on the market price and the formal recommendation.

For sectors, an "Overweight" sector weighting is used when we have BUYs on majority of the stocks under our coverage by market cap. "Underweight" is used when we have SELLs on majority of the stocks we cover by market cap. "Neutral" is used when there are relatively equal weightings of BUYs and SELLs.
